

SAUK COUNTY HISTORICAL MUSEUM
FILL-IT-IN-FUN
WHAT AM I?

1. I am a great big bird with tail feathers of many colors that I can open up like a fan. I am stuffed and sit in the parlor downstairs.

What am I?

I AM A _____.

2. I entertained people before there were televisions, computers or radios. I made music for people to sing and dance too. I am made of wood and have strings and I am in the front parlor. What am I?

I AM A _____.

3. A bunch of my friends and I are in a closet downstairs. People lean on me, and depend on me to help them walk. A craftsman carefully carved me out of wood.

What am I?

I AM A _____.

4. In the old days, books cost a lot of money and only people who were rich could own a lot of books. This room downstairs is filled with books, and has a desk where people can sit and read the books. You probably have one of these in your school. What am I?

I AM A _____.

5. I can burn either wood or coal and helped the family make dinner. I am in the kitchen and was very hot. What am I?

I AM A _____.

6. I am in the cook's pantry and helped keep food cold. Ice was put into me causing me to get very cold inside. What am I?

I AM AN _____.

7. I eat nuts and like to climb trees. You can find me in Room 1 hidden among my bird friends. What am I?

I AM A _____.

8. I am soft and fuzzy and some people say I feel like dog fur. Long ago people called fur traders used my fur to trade for the supplies they needed. I am in Room 1 along with another furry animal known as a beaver. What am I?

I AM A _____.

9. When flocks of us flew over, people said it darkened the sky and blocked out the sun. Now, we are what people call extinct meaning that there are no more of us alive. Today I am a rare example in Room 3. What am I?

I AM A _____.

10. When I was placed on top of a stove, I acted as a radiator giving off heat to warm a room. I sit in Room 2. I am also the first President of the United States. Who am I?

I AM _____.

11. I am a big hammer used by Gollmar Circus workers to pound stakes into the ground to tie down the big top. I am now in Room 2. What am I?

I AM A _____.

12. I probably look like something that you ride in the summer. I have two wheels, but one is REALLY big and one is REALLY small. I am in Room 2. What am I?

I AM A _____.

13. I am a big factory with lots of buildings. I was built during World War II to make gun powder and ammunition for the war. Today my buildings are being torn down and my land is being made back into prairie. My story is in Room 3. What am I?

I AM _____.

14. I was used to call the Merrimac Ferry to the other side of the river if you wanted to cross. I am on the staircase landing and I am made of brass.

I AM A _____.

15. I was the first woman Sheriff of Sauk County.

I AM _____.

16. I drew the first detailed map of Sauk County in 1859.

I AM _____.