Grotophorst, Henry, 24-1996SB, past Supervisor of Honey Creek Township

Grotophorst, Herman, 2011.1.64. Herman Grotophorst was born in 1856 in the Township of Honey Creek. Herman Grotophorst was born into a prominent Sauk County Family. A longtime lawyer in Baraboo, receiving his degree in 1885, Grotophorst was a close friend of Robert "Fighting Bob" La Follette. He was very active in community and state affairs, serving on the State Board of Control, the State Normal School Board of Education (precursor to the current University of Wisconsin System), and the Baraboo Board of Education. He also served on the Baraboo Parks Board and was largely responsible for the creation of Ochsner Park. An unsuccessful Democratic Candidate for Congress in 1920, Herman Grotophorst continued to practice law until his death in 1931. Artist unknown. Ca. 1890. Portrait hanging in the SCHS museum.

Marsh, Edward, 2001.1.62. Birth date unknown. Edward Marsh had come to the Baraboo region in 1849 and set himself up as a photographer offering the public, Ambrotype portraits (an early photographic process) in his gallery. Marsh later served in the Civil War. In 1869 with business partner John W. Blake he purchased some land along the north shore of Devils Lake (then known as Minne-Wauken) from a notable local architect Louis Claude, with the idea of building a resort hotel. Marsh named it the Minne-Wauken House after the lake. Later the place became known as the Cliff House and gained nationwide fame and was visited with such guests like Generals Grant and Sherman of Civil War fame, and writer Henry Longfellow. Marsh and Blake however, only owned the hotel for a very short time. By 1871 they had sold the property. Artist unknown. Ca. 1870. Portrait hanging in SCHS museum.

 Sallade, Elmyra Pearl, 2001.1.65. Portrait by Edward Mascraft, 1907. Early resident of Rock Springs and niece of Stephen Van Renssalaer Ableman, an early settler of Sauk County and founder of Rock Springs. Born in Albany New York to Reuben Pearl and Dorothy Ableman Pearl. After the death of her father, Elmyra came to Rock Springs then called Ableman at the insistence of her uncle. She married William Augustus Sallade in 1864.
 She died in Fon du Lac in 1910. This portrait was based on a Daguerreotype photograph taken probably in the 1850s.

 Williams, Hannah Jones, 2011.1.63. Hannah Jones Williams was the mother of Major Charles Williams. Charles Williams was born in Cincinnati, Ohio in 1818 and held many occupations and equally many public offices throughout his long life. Beginning his career as a Civil Engineer, he eventually held in both Milwaukee and Sauk County, positions in the U.S. Land office, Milwaukee Common Council, Treasurer of the Milwaukee and Prairie Du Chen Railroad, Chairman of the Sauk County Board of Supervisors, School Treasurer of the Excelsior Township and President of Sauk County Agricultural Society. Eventually Williams settled in the Freedom Township to a life of farming. Williams also had a distinguished military career helping to raise the 23rd Wisconsin Volunteers during the Civil War. Rising to the rank of Major he served in a number of engagements including the siege of Vicksburg where he was highly praised for his service. Unfortunately not much is known of his mother. Artist & date unknown. Portrait hanging in SCHS museum.
